

International Seminar of Young Tibetologists ཐུལ་སྤྱིའི་གཞེན་རུའི་བོད་རིག་པའི་གྲོས་ཚོགས།

CALL FOR PAPERS

The fourth meeting of the International Seminar of Young Tibetologists will be held in Leipzig, Germany, between September 7th and September 12th 2015. The conveners of the Seminar invite you to submit your abstract (max. 350 words) and CV.

REGISTRATION PROCESS:

Registration on the EasyChair website will be possible from March 15th 2014 (<https://www.easychair.org/conferences/?conf=isyt2015>). You will first need to create an EasyChair account in order to submit your abstract and CV. Instructions for this can be found on the ISYT website (<http://isyt.org/HowtosubmitISYT2015>).

The deadline for submitting your CV and abstract is 31st July 2014. Please note that abstracts which exceed 350 words will not be taken into consideration.

Your submission will undergo a thorough review process, after which the conveners will notify you of the outcome. You will receive this notification by email by the end of October 2014.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:

a) No more than six years should have passed since finishing your final degree.

or

b) No more than six years should have passed since your first academic appointment.

If these guidelines are unclear in any way, or not applicable to your situation, please don't hesitate to contact us. Masters students who, at the time of the Seminar, will have graduated, are required to provide a letter of recommendation from their supervisor.

PARTICIPANTS:

Participants are generally required to present a paper. Papers will be subjected to a time limit of 30 minutes (including 10 minutes for questions) and may be presented in English or Tibetan.

All papers should present the results of original research, and should be based on the use of primary sources. Participants should not present papers that have been given at other conferences or published elsewhere.

OBSERVERS:

We will be accepting a limited number of observers (reduced fee). Please email us, providing a short biography and a CV.

We are looking forward to receiving your abstract, and welcoming you to Leipzig!
If you have any questions please contact us via isyt2015@gmail.com.

The organising committee of ISYT 2015 Leipzig